Please Note:

1. Our prospective pastoral candidate, Rev. Dr. Don Flowers, has served as pastor of Providence Baptist Church, South Carolina since July 1997. Prior to coming to Charleston he served as Minister of Youth at First Baptist Church, Lenoir, NC and First Baptist Church, Greenville, SC. He is a native of Cherryville, North Carolina, and is a graduate of Wake Forest University, the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and Emory University. In addition to his work at Providence, Don serves on the Board of the SC Campaign to Prevent Teen Pregnancy as Board Member Emeritus. In the past he has served on the Coordinating Council of the SC Cooperative Baptist Fellowship, served with the Trident United Way and serves as a pool chaplain at MUSC Hospital. Don and his wife, Anita, are the parents of two grown daughters, Alison (married to James) and Savannah (married to Jonathan). He enjoys playing golf, biking and being in, on, or near the water (but not while playing golf!) If you would like to hear some of Don's sermons you can do so at:
